Can you imagine how the life would be if you were born without arms and legs? 'Make a difference' tells you the miraculous life of Nick Vujicic, a man who was born without limbs. This book is based on Nick's teenage life to illustrate his positive attitude, great wisdom and strong faith when overcoming numerous difficulties. He loves to travel around the world, including Hong Kong, to encourage people through giving talks and sharing his own experiences. His touching stories really inspire many people. He is so popular that you can also search a lot about his life on the internet.

Don't miss Nick's amazing but true stories! You will believe something impossible can turn to be possible!
